FOILED BANDITS.

Girl's Ready Wit Saved a Bank's Funds. Found at James street.

through the presence of mind of a girl employee, who pushed a button that set ringing a warning bell on the outside of the bank. Found at James street.

The men drove up to the bank building in an automobile. Two of them remained in the machine and the other four went into the bank. Found at James street.

After the point of revolvers, lined up the cashier, the three paying tellers and three other employees, the only ones in the bank at the time. As one of the robbers was trying to open a gate leading to the money vault, one of the girls stepped on an electrical contrivance connected with a large gong on the outside of the building. Found at James street.

This rang, and when the robbers saw people running towards the bank from all directions they jumped into their automobile and fled. Found at James street.

BANK NOTE ACT REVOKED. Found at James street.

London, Dec. 23.—A Royal proclamation made public to-night revokes as from January 1 the provisions of the Banks Notes Act of 1914, which made bank notes issued by issuing tender to any amount. Found at James street.

The proclamation restores these banks as regards their note issues, to the pre-war status, except that they will be permitted to repay notes in currency notes issued by the Bank of England instead of in gold. Found at James street.

There is nothing in this had world like sympathy: it is becoming to the soul and face.—Lord Byron. Found at James street.

DEATHS.

ABDOTT--In this city, on Monday, December 22nd, 1919, William Abdott, aged 84 years.

Funeral from his late residence, 25 Woodhouse avenue, Friday morning, at 10:30, to St. Ann's Church. Interment at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Notice.

COBB--At the residence of her brother, John Haycraft, 101 Leeming street, on Sunday, December 22, Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Haycraft, widow of Thomas Cobb, aged 84 years.

Funeral on Friday at 1:30 p.m. above address to St. Matthew's Church. Interment in Hamilton Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

BRUCH--In loving memory of our dear father, James A. French, who died on Tuesday, December 23rd, 1919.

Love but not forgotten.

—W. and Family.

IN MEMORIAM

CUL--In loving memory of Clifford, dearly beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cul, who died Christmas morning, December 23rd, 1919, aged eight years.

No stain was on the little heart.

His had not entered there.

And no sorrow deep in his soul.

He was too pure for this world.

Too beautiful to stay.

So God's holy angels took him.

Our darling boy away.

He knows how much I miss him.

He counts the tears I shed.

And whispers, "Hush, he's sleeping."

Your loved one is not dead.

—Gladly remembered by Mother and Father.

THE PARTY took place under the arch of evergreen and wedding bells, and Rev. P. G. Farrell, of Lincoln Avenue Methodist Church, Galt, conducted the ceremony. The gifts to the bride were costly and numerous. After the signing of the register a very sumptuous repast was served, after which the happy couple left for the 235 C. P. R. train for Oshawa, and other points east. The bride's traveling costume was of navy blue broad cloth and hat to match. They will be at home after Jan. 15 at 21 Crombie street, Galt.

PLOWIES' CLUB AT HOME.

The recently formed Plowies' Athletic Club held their inaugural dance at the number ten night hundred, in the assembly building of the International Fur Works, and all present, to the pleasure of the night hundred, were loud in their praise of the pleasant evening they enjoyed.

For which it is mainly due the entertainment committee of the club, and those who so ably and unflinchingly assisted them to make the evening one long to be remembered.
